Thank you all staff and volunteers, you have shown us genuine skilled and enriching support. Thanks does not express deeply enough, our gratitude.

Thank you - two words that will never be enough. You made me feel stronger than I was, more normal than I was and to see some kind of future that I didn't think was possible. understanding.

I cannot recommend Willow Burn's counselling service highly enough. Every week you supported and helped me to come to terms with the loss that I had suffered.

Yes - When I started my sessions, I felt that I did not want to carry on my life the way it was. Now I can see that there is a future for me.

Being able to speak freely to someone has helped a lot.
